Secretary of State John Hay has consented to remain in President Roosevelt's cabinet. It is presumed that he will retain his postfolio upon the stipulation that the President must under two circumstances rake Hay over the coals.

Saturday and Sunday a terrific snow storm and blizzard swept over pretty much all the Roosevelt landslide States. Even in the Sunny South, some sections have been visited by the earliest snow storm on record. This is a year of record breakers.

The Washington Post gives this timely warning: "Judge Parker is now being criticised for forming a partnership with corporation lawyers in New York. It will be time to criticise him when he follows a distinguished example and writes a book or signs up with the Chautauqua circuit."

Mr. George W. Vanderbilt went all the way from Asheville, N. C., to New York to vote. Thousands of North Carolinians didn't care enough about it to go a few blocks or a mile or so to the polls. The difference between Mr. Vanderbilt and our people is that he learned the importance of his vote.

It is announced from Washington that there is an element of Republicans opposed to the Crumpacker plan looking to a reduction in Southern representation in Congress and the electoral college, because an agreement to carry out that plan would appear to be an approval of the disfranchisement of the negro provided the South does not insist on being as fully represented as if the average large negro vote were not eliminated. It is more likely that the Supreme Court is the way.

BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Residence of Miss Newkirk, on Second Street, Entered and $85 in Money Stolen—No Clue Left.

While members of the household were at the show grounds yesterday afternoon, the residence of Miss Maggie Newkirk, No 312 North Second street, was burglarized and $85 in cash taken from a trunk entered by means of a false key in one of the rooms on the first floor. About $50 in another package in the same trunk was evidently overlooked and was not stolen. The contents of the trunk were scattered over the floor and other apartments were ransacked. Entrance was gained through a door of the basement evidently also by means of another false key.

Mr. T. W. Wood and family occupy the second floor of the residence and while the robbery was going on, Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Pugh were seated in a room just above but heard nothing to excite suspicion. The robbery was one of the boldest attempted in Wilmington in a long time and absolutely no trace of the marauder was left. Some men were working just across the street and said that they saw a negro come out of an alley leading back by the basement door, but they had no idea there was any robbery going on.

COAST LINE COMMON.

Market Advanced Yesterday to $155. Much of it Owned in Wilmington.

A feature of the stock market yesterday in which many Wilmington people were interested was the rapid advance of Atlantic Coast Line Common, following the annual meeting of the board of directors in Richmond. A telegram to Hugh MacRae & Co., the bankers, yesterday stated that the stock had sold in New York for $155—an advance of six points since Saturday. In its review of the stock market last night, the Associated Press said: "The rise in the Louisville & Nashville group was explained by the cutting of the Atlantic Coast Line 'melon.' The desire to realize persisted to the last, and the market closed very irregular. Bonds were strong."

A large amount of A. C. L. Common is owned in Wilmington, and much of it is said to have been bought last summer at and even below par. The proceedings of the board of directors at Richmond is told elsewhere in to-day's STAR.

A Fayetteville Wedding.

THE SHOW WAS GOOD

Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' Mammoth Enterprises Delighted Wilmington Yesterday.

THE GRAND STREET PAGEANT

Feature Feats and a Good Menagerie. Crowds Not Large, But Good Natured. Traffic Was Heavy on the Car Lines—Off to Goldsboro.

If the managers of the Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' circus had been delegated the power to name the weather conditions yesterday, they could not have chosen more wisely for the two large crowds which filed in and out their big canvas for both the afternoon and evening performances. 'Twas a trifle cool, to be sure, but the crispiness of the atmosphere gave one just the brace necessary for the walk from the street car terminal to the grounds. The show yesterday was refined, sensational, stupendous. Nearly every act was a feature act and there were many of them. Not a few persons said after the performance that it was the best circus they had ever attended.

The street parade yesterday morning was nearly a mile long and, barring the large number of closed cages, it was, perhaps, the best seen here in recent years. The pageant was witnessed by thousands, including the children of the public and private schools, who were given recess for the purpose of seeing it and a further respite from study in the early afternoon that they might attend the performance. The route was down Fourth street to Red Cross; down Red Cross to Second; down Second to Market; thence to Front and up Front to Red Cross to Fourth again and back to the grounds.

In the narrow confines of a newspaper story it would be futile to attempt a description of the entire show. The menagerie is above the average and includes a herd of large and small elephants, nearly every one a performer. The horses, the larger number of which were not seen in the parade, were beauties, and their movements in the arena were excellent. The riding was exceptionally good.

Of the feature acts, the Aurora Zouaves, Diavolo and Prodigious Porthos took first rank. The latter rode down a steep incline on a bicycle, and with the momentum gained, vaulted a chasm of fifty feet over a herd of ten elephants, alighting on a platform ten feet high, and then riding down another short incline to the ground. Diavolo's act was seen here three years ago and it has lost no interest and not one scintilla of its thrill. The Aurora Zouaves well established their prowess as the best drilled soldiers in the world. The trapeze work by the "Flying Jordans" was also high class and thrilling. The large colony of clowns with the show were A1 and served well to keep up the interest between acts with a melange of refined nonsensicalities. The band with the show was good and the concert at the opening was enjoyed by all.

The crowd yesterday, while not so large as seen on a show day in Wilmington, was very orderly. Only nine arrests were made by the police during the entire day and night and none of those was important. It is a compliment to the police force of the city that, without a single special officer, as usually appointed for such occasions, they held the crowd well in hand and had few occasions to "call anybody down." The number of strangers in the city for the show was noticeable, more out-of town people having been attracted, perhaps, than on any "circus day" in a long time. The street car people handled the traffic as well as could be expected, having put every car of their equipment in use. There was not an accident of any nature reported. A conservative estimate of the crowd which saw the afternoon performance is 5,000, while the number at night was not so large. The polite, courteous attention of the circus employes, from the stake-driver to the manager, was the remark of everyone.

The three sections of 56 cars of the circus train reached Wilmington from Florence about 5 o'clock and work was begun at once building the tented city on the old golf links, near Hilton Park. The parade moved promptly on time and there was no confusion. By last midnight nearly all the paraphernalia was aboard the cars again and very soon the three trains went rumbling over the 84 miles to Goldsboro, where two exhibitions will be given to-day. To-morrow the show is at Newbern, Friday at Kinston, and on Saturday the season closes at Tarboro. The show will then be sold at auction, owing to the death of Mr. Peter Sells, one of the proprietors, the sale being to settle the estate, and then everything goes into Winter quarters at Columbus, Ohio, until next season. A number of railway transportation people are now with the show looking after the transportation of the people back to their homes all over the world until the season opens again.

Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' shows, under whatever new name or management, will be welcomed this way again next year. They represent everything legitimate in the circus business of the present century.

May Postpone Carnival.

For reasons, unnecessary to enumerate, the Naval Reserves are considering the postponement of their carnival from week after next until some time in the Spring. However, nothing definite has been decided upon yet, the matter being left with the committee appointed some time ago to have the matter in charge.

CLARKTON RAPISTS WILL HANG TO-DAY.

Everything in Readiness at Elizabethtown for Execution of Dave Brown and Neill Sellers in Bladen County.

In the jail square at Elizabethtown, N. C., to-day, promptly at noon, Sheriff C. W. Lyon, of Bladen county, will spring the death trap which will hurl into eternity the black souls of Neill Sellers and Dave Brown, the negro demons who committed the terriole outrage upon and most foully murdered Mrs. Blanche Packer, the young wife of Mr. Geo. S. Packer, a highly respected working man who lived near Clarkton, on the morning of Saturday, September 3rd—just seventy-five days ago.

Mr. W. E. Hall, manager of the Postal Telegraph Co. at Elizabethtown, was in the city yesterday and said that every arrangement had been made for the execution and that Sheriff Lyon had signified his intention to let the drop fall exactly at noon. The double gallows has been constructed in the jail square and, while it is as private as possible, there will be little to keep any one from seeing the execution. A large crowd is expected. Several will go from Wilmington on the 5 o'clock S. A. L. train this morning.

Undertaker W. E. Yopp, of this city, yesterday received an order from Sheriff Lyon for two cheap pine coffins in which the bodies of the negroes will be placed as soon as the hanging is over. The coffins are each six feet long and will be sent up on the S. A. L. train this morning. Application for the bodies was made by the University College of Medicine for dissecting purposes, but the families of both negroes say they will bury them and their wishes in that respect, at least, will be complied with. The families live in Carver's Creek township, 18 miles from Elizabethtown, and the bodies will be taken there after the execution.

Scant attention will be paid or credence given to any confession that either of the negroes may make. It is said that at the last moment Brown may make a confession exonerating Sellers.

Sellers owned a tract of land and a home in Carver's Creek township but a few days ago, he made a deed conveying half of his homestead to his wife and the other half to his mother.

MUST DRIVE SLOWLY AT JUNCTION.

Four Before Mayor Yesterday for Trotting Horses Across Prominent Square.

The public will applaud the action of the Mayor in stationing a policeman at busy corners in the city like Front and Princess streets to see that all vehicles in the future observe some slight regard for pedestrians who try to pick their way through the congestion at those places. The trotting of horses to vehicles at Front and Princess streets has been a constant menace to the public safety for some time and the Mayor has determined to put a stop to it. Yesterday the drivers of three transfer wagons and a dray were before the court on a charge of failing to obey the request of Policeman B. R. King that they pass carefully over that corner. The four defendants were not fined but were severely reprimanded by the Mayor. The reckless driving on busy corners must and will be stopped according to the order of the court.

Scene in Justice's Court.

Justice Bornemann has a happy faculty of terminating domestic difficulties in his court after the "kiss-and-make-up" fashion. Yesterday the wife of William Jackson, colored, came into court very wrathy and had her husband tried on a peace warrant, alleging that he had used ugly words towards her, beat her and threatened to do worse in time. Justice Bornemann heard the case through and then gave the couple some of his characteristic fatherly counsel, with the result that the wife fell on the neck of her husband and embraced him. Thus ended the law suit and Justice Bornemann was jubilant.

Onslow Pond Suit

W. D. McIver, Esq., of Newbern, and E. M. Koonce, Esq., of Jacksonville, N. C., counsel for the Onslow Board of County Commissioners; Mr. J. B. Grant, chairman, and Dr. B. L. Kellum, member-elect of the Board, and Sheriff-elect W. C. Mills, of Onslow, were here yesterday on business connected with the suit in the Federal Court against the county to compel the treasurer to pay interest on $40,000 bonds of the old Onslow and East Carolina Railroad, now the W. & N., which bonds the county is seeking to repudiate by an action in the State court.

Wedding this afternoon.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon, in Fifth Street M. E. Church, this city, Mr. James Love Davis will lead to the altar in marriage Miss Edna Louise Fleet, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fleet. A number of out-of-town friends and relatives are here for the ceremony. After a bridal tour north, Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home, after November 26th, at No. 209 North Seventh street.

What's the use to buy ready-made clothes when you can get the same goods in fine custom tailored garments at the same money? Hundreds of well satisfied customers will tell you how it's done at J. Shrier's, northeast corner of Front and Princess streets. "At the sign of the Golden Arm." That's the place.

GUILTY FIRST DEGREE

Trial of Dan Teachey Concluded at Kenansville and the Defendant Must Hang.

EVIDENCE VERY CONFLICTING.

Alibi Seemed Firmly Established, While Testimony for Prosecution at Same Time Appeared Most Conclusive—Long Trial Ended.

[Special Star Telegram.]

KENANSVILLE, N. C., Nov. 15.—After a trial of a week and two days and a most strenuous effort on the part of counsel for the defence to prove an alibi for the prisoner, the jury tonight in Duplin Superior Court returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree against Dan Teachey, the young white man who shot and killed Robert Rivenbark, also white, near Wallace last March a year ago. The penalty is death. An effort will be made to get another hearing before the Supreme Court.

A large part of Saturday afternoon was taken up in the cross-examination of the defendant, Dan Teachey, by H. L. Stevens, Esq., who prosecuted with the solicitor. Questions were plied hot and fast and the defendant at times showed some confusion, but stuck to his statement and refused to contradict himself. The case began to develop more interest during the day and those who came into the court house remained. The State pressed the defendant to know if he was not indicted for a cutting affray in the same court by Solicitor Richardson and convicted by a jury. He answered that he was indicted and prosecuted by Mr. Duffy, the present solicitor, was defended by Mr. Stevens and was acquitted by a jury, and introduced the court record showing a verdict of "not guilty." It was understood that court would continue until midnight Saturday night and about a hundred witnesses, who had been in constant attendance for two weeks and were not allowed to be in the court house during the trial on account of the order of the court separating the witnesses, were hanging around the court house waiting for names to be called, but anxious to go home to spend Sunday. At seven o'clock the judge directed the court crier to announce that all witnesses would be discharged until Monday morning. When the announcement was made a shout of joy went up that even disturbed the proceedings of the court. Some attorney remarked to the judge that it was a vote of thanks, and the judge smiled and said nothing about contempt proceedings. All the evening session until nearly midnight was devoted to motions on the civil docket.

Saturday afternoon Luke W. Boney testified for the defence that he met Teachey on the night of the killing both going and coming from Teachey, but his recollection of the hour was not very definite.

Misses Cora and Annie Teachey, sisters of the defendant, testified that they saw their brother when he went out and came back on the night of the homicide. He was at home, according to the testimony of both when the "Shoofly" blew at Wallce about which time the murder was committed three and half miles away. One of them testified she saw him go in his room, heard him pull off his shoes and drop them on the floor and heard him coughing during the night. Two other sisters in another part of the house testified to the presence of their brother there earlier in the evening. A number of witnesses testified to the good character of the Misses Teachey. The defendant's witnesses fixed him at home at the very minute he is said to have been at Easter Williams' over three miles distant, and it was evident that the jury realized the absolute conflict in the evidence, which they were to pass upon. All the forenoon to-day was taken up by the State in reply and the defendant in rebuttal regarding some minor details which did not materially charge or add to the evidence already introduced. The argument began in the afternoon and was closed late this evening. The jury was out but a short time before the verdict of guilty in the first degree was rendered.

HILTON LUMBER RATE MATTER.

Supreme Court Holds Error—Boyette Must Have Liberty—Bank Reports.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 15.—The Supreme Court holds in the case of Hilton Lumber Company vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, from New Hanover, that the discrimination by shippers in allowing reduced rates on raw material freights in consideration of re-shipping the finished product over their line is illegal. In the case in point logs shipped by regular freight, being 250, but in consideration of re-shipment of the lumber from the logs over their lines, a rate of 210 was allowed. An error is found in the court below.

The Supreme Court, in an opinion handed down to-day in the appeal of Emmitt Boyette, from Lenoir county, holds that Chapter 1, Sections 65 and 67, Acts of the 1899 Legislature, are unconstitutional especially for the reason that under our constitutional system, no man can be deprived of his liberty to await the action of a Legislature. Boyette was acquitted of the murder of his wife on a plea of insanity and was treated in the criminal insane department, but is now pronounced cured. The legislative act barred his liberty but the Supreme Court holds that a writ of habeas corpus must be granted.

The Corporation Commission issues an order for reports of the condition of State, private, and savings banks at the close of business November 10th.

Real Estate Transfers.

By deeds filed for record yesterday George D. Parsley and wife transferred to D. R. Foster, for $350, property on east side of Second, 123½ feet south of Davis street, 65x74½ feet in size, and W. H. Pemberton and wife transferred to Walker Taylor and wife, for $10 and other considerations, property on north side of Dock, 132 feet east of Seventh street, 40x130 feet in size.

COAST LINE STOCKHOLDERS.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 15.—At a meeting of the Atlantic Coast Line stockholders here to-day a dividend of 25 per cent. on the common stock was declared—30 per cent. payable January 2nd, in common stock to the registered holders and 5 per cent. payable January 20th, in dividend certificates of indebtedness of the company. BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Lease of Some of Public Docks Again Under Advisement—Routine Business.

The Board of Audit and Finance was in regular semi-monthly meeting last night but transacted no business of importance, adjourning until Friday night for the further consideration of several matters, one of which is a lease of some of the city docks according to the plan advocated by Mayor Springer a few months ago. The Mayor was present, by invitation, last night and explained the plan, but final consideration was deferred until Friday night, as stated.

All members of the Board were present at the meeting except Mr. Wilder. The award of the contract by the Aldermen for the repair of the engine house at Fourth and Princess streets was deferred for further information. Murderer Convicted in Duplin Last Week Must Die Jan. 13th, 1905—Appeal.

[Special Star Telegram.]

KENANSVILLE, N. C., Nov. 14.—On Saturday afternoon Judge Fred Moore sentenced Geo. W. Daniels, convicted at this term of the Superior Court of the murder of Will Maxwell, to be hanged on the 13th of January, 1905. The prisoner is care worn from continued imprisonment and showed no signs of emotion when the sentence was delivered. He seemed absolutely indifferent to the consequences. His counsel, Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, and Messrs. Stevens, Beasley and Weeks gave notice of appeal.

Sunday afternoon it snowed hard here for about an hour but the ground was wet and the snow melted as fast as it fell.

Three Arrests for Murder.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "Deputy Sheriffs Monaghan and Pate last night arrested at their homes in 71st township, Mack McKay, Alonzo Fowler and John Manning, on warrants charging them with the murder of Walter Maynor, last week, by shooting him from ambush. They were brought to town and placed in jail to await trial."

— Justice Sheehan on yesterday heard the case of D. W. Walker, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon the young man Barnhill, from Pender county, holding that there was probable cause and binding the defendant over to the higher court under a bond of $50.

THE ERA OF ENERGY.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun states that the four years of President Roosevelt's new administration may become known as the "Era of Energy." The statement is given out that those closest to the President believe that the term energy rather than strenuousness will be descriptive of the Administration's policy. It is believed, the Sun's Washington man says, that Mr. Roosevelt desires something more than an "era of good feeling," which might exist during a period of inertia and sloth of industrial development, and feels that an era of energy is likely to be an era of good feeling as well if party differences and sectional reprisals are forgotten in the activities of industry and national development along domestic lines. He also reasons thus:

"The vote by which Mr. Roosevelt was elected discloses unmistakable and extensive disregard on the part of voters of their former party affiliation, some Republicans voting for Judge Parker and countless Democrats supporting Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt not only belongs to a new generation of politicians, but may be regarded as himself the founder of a new school of politics. As a politician he has been a revelation to all who thought they understood the art. Notwithstanding his occupancy of the White House during the unexpired term, the quality of his statesmanship is yet to be determined, politics having entered largely into the conditions which surrounded him prior to his election. The fame of his new administration and the place he will occupy in history as the exponent of advanced ideas will depend more upon the industrial development and business activities of the country than upon success attained in building up a party machine and establishing partisan power."

Are we to understand that statements like the above sent out from Washington indicate that they are inspired by the President with a view to allay the impression in the South that his administration will be anti-Southern. The South has certainly had reason and cause, too, to become so impressed, but probably Mr. Roosevelt has learned something and broadened by his experience in the White House. It is strange now to be talking about a renewal of the "era of good feeling," and we are thus to infer that there has been some retrogression in that respect. The President caused it, but we are being told now that he has been misunderstood by the South. Well, let it go at that if the President wants to hold out the olive branch to the South.

The fact is we would give any President very little credit for practical brains to suppose that he would single out any section of the Republic as a mark for vindictiveness. The South has been greatly disturbed by the policy of President Roosevelt, and his acts and the national platform of the Repblican party say whether there was any cause for it or not. The most to be feared from such a policy would be a disturbance of political and social problems here, retarding but not frustrating their ultimate solution—simply making the work harder.

Industrially the South would be bound to forge ahead in the development of its tremendous resources, which it is no use to recount here. Not alone is Southern capital being invested in this development but millions of Northern capital have already come here, with much more of it to come, so that we would be safe in saying that President Roosevelt wouldn't do anything to disturb the development of so important a part of the national domain. Have investors up North already whispered in the President' ear? Whether they have or not these further observations of the Baltimore Sun's Washington representative are interesting:

Under such conditions the development of the South must be especially marked, and anything which retards this will affect the whole country. At present it is the open field of industry, where the seeds have been planted and the soil been found suitable. Northern capital is seeking investment where the coal, the iron and the cotton are close together, and the opportunity for the development of the diversified industries is almost without limit and without parallel. The Northern capital which has been invested in this section has been profitable, and its influx cannot be checked without destroying a large part of the earning capacity of the capital of the country and involving an increase in the cost of production which would place a limit upon the expansion of our foreign tarde in competition with the trade of other countries.

Mr. Roosevelt is said to fully realize this situation—at least in so far as the desirability of having his administration conspicuous for the energy of industrial development during the succeeding four years he is in office. I was talking to-day with a Southern men, eminent for his conservatism, who enjoys the friendship and confidence of the President, and who believes that Mr. Roosevelt has been greatly misunderstood by those who have been severe in their criticism of him. The opinion was expressed by this gentleman that the South would have no occasion to complain of the new administration and that, for that matter, neither section nor party would be unduly considered in determining the President's policy. He said he was sure that the President appreciated the possibility to the country from development in the South and realized as well as anyone that nothing should be done to discourage the Southern people or to check the development of mutual interests between the North and South.

If there is any politics to be considered in this policy it is said to lie in the direction of winning the confidence of the Southern people. The gentleman with whom I was talking said he appreciated that the great danger of irritation among Southern people grew out of the unfortunate complication arising from the negro question, but he declared with great earnestness that Mr. Roosevelt's attitude is misunderstood. He said that the President had never made the explanation he might have of the Booker Washington and Crum incidents, and that he might never do so; but that the Southern people would find from his course that they had misinterpreted him.

The advantages under which Mr. Roosevelt will begin his new term are thus summarized: While the candidate of the Republican party, he was elected by an overwhelming vote drawn from all parties and all classes of people; he is a new man in politics, with advanced ideas, and free from the obligation of old party associations and conditions, the Republican party which he represents being practically a reorganization along lines of his own; he is free from ambition to again succeed himself in the White House and therefore not subject to the necessity of political contrivance to hold the Republican party in line for the continuance of his power; his ambition is to make a record which Americans without regard to party will approve, and he is freer from the restraint of obligation than any man, unless it was Mr. Cleveland, who has been elected President within several generations.

THE PREEIDENT'S TRIP SOUTH.

Tom Pence, Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post, seems to have scooped most of the Washington newspaper men in giving refutation of a rumor that President Roosevelt had planned a visit this winter to the birthplace of his mother in Georgia. The Post's correspondent several days ago sent out this news and the Northern newspapers are publishing belated confirmation of Mr. Pence's White House item.

The Baltimore Sun, which is always abreast of the Washington news, also publishes a denial that the President is coming South, at an early date, at an early date at least. On Sunday, Secretary Loeb authorized the Sun's correspondent to deny the statement that Mr. Roosevelt has made plans for a trip to Georgia. Secretary Loeb said that while the President had given some thought to a prospective visit to the South, no plans had materialized, and that it might be stated definitely that the President would not go South during the winter months, when Congress will be in session and he will be busily engaged with the transaction of executive business. The Sun representative goes on to say that it is known that the president is especially desirous of going to Georgia, where he has relatives, and to which state he feels a deep attachment. It is possible that the journey may be made in the Spring, after the inauguration, and that it may be elaborated into a more extensive Southern tour.

The South differs with Mr. Roosevelt but when he make his contemplated visit he will meet with the defference due to the President of the Republic. We do not know but that by the time the President comes South invitations will be extended to him to visit more States than Georgia. In view of his trip to the St. Louis Exposition, the people of Texas have invited him to extend his trip to the Lone Star State.

For the next few weeks the President will doubtless be busy with the preparation of his message to the last session of the 58th Congress which meets next month. Congratulations are still pouring into the White House, on account of the result of the election on Tuesday of last week. It is estimated that the messages number between 12,000 and 15,000, and the President has given instructions for them all to be answered. A big force of executive clerks and secretaries is kept busy arranging and responding to the congratulatory missives.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Wilmington Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Wilmington readers.

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly. I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best of results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Salt river is a beautiful stream; the climate is salubrious, the scenery pleasing to the eye and charming to the ethical senses, and yet no one really enjoys the trip—except for the other fellow.—Bristol Courier, Dem.

—— Governor LaFollette, who is said to entertain Presidential hopes, proposes to win his way to national favor by warring on the trusts. What a grand thing it would be for the country if the standard-bearers of the opposing parties in 1908 should both be sincere seekers after the scalp of monopoly! The people would stand to win, whichever way the cat should jump. It is a rosy dream, but if Gov. LaFollette be really out for Trust blood he will never get a Presidential nomination. The Republican party is not going to commit hara-kiri by cutting off the sinews of war.—Philadelphia Record.

—— Missouri furnishes in the prospective retirement from the Senate of Mr. Cockerell a melancholy example of the incidental harm that "landslides" do. Four years ago Missouri went Democratic and the opportunity was misused to send "Gumshoe Bill" Stone to the Senate. This year the Republicans won, and Mr. Cockerell, a veteran Senator and one of sterling worth and ability, will be left at home. President Roosevelt has more than once expressed his appreciation of Senator Cockerell. His Republican associates highly esteem him. Partisanship no more limits his public usefulness than it did that of George F. Hoar. He will be missed.—New York World.

Do you remember the little things that gave us so much pleasure when we were young? With what zest did we sit down to the table after our play was over and eat the mush and milk our mother put before us. But as we get older it takes more to give us pleasure. Mush and milk no longer tastes good to us, and our digestion may be impaired. The best advice we can give to such a person is to tone up the stomach with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is nature's most valuable and health-giving agent—made without the use of alcohol. It contains roots, herbs and barks, and is the concentration of nature's vitality as found in the fields and woods. This remedy has a history which speaks well for it because it was given to the public by Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., nearly forty years ago, and has since been sold by druggists in ever increasing quantities. Some medicines, tonics or compounds, enjoy a large sale for a few years, then disappear from the public attention, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved such a reliable blood remedy and tonic that it often enjoys the confidence of several generations in a family, and its increased sales year by year coming from the recommendations of those who have tried it, prove its lasting merit, so that every bottle bears the stamp of public approval. Every other blood-maker and tonic for the stomach that we know of contains alcohol, but Dr. Pierce guarantees that no alcohol is contained in his "Medical Discovery."

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The cotton market was a little more active than yesterday. The wire service was working sufficiently well to permit of the receipt of nearly all the usual Southern news but private wire houses without the means of communication and New York were cut off from Southern business. The market opened steady at an advance of one to three points in response to rather better cables than expected and reports of cold weather in the belt. Local operators seemed to be trading a little more freely than on the previous day, Liverpool sent a few buying orders, and some of the larger spot houses were buying. Following the call the list worked up to a net advance of about five to eight points, with December leading, while January ruled relatively easy. Wall street shorts appeared to be selling January to prevent an advance, while buying in December contracts. Later, business became less active and during the balance of the session the general tendency was downward. A local spot house was quite a liberal seller in the afternoon trading, and the market was finally barely steady at a decline of three to seven points, the lowest level of the day. Sales were reported of 50,000 bales. The market being so narrow, it took but comparatively small orders to swing prices and the fluctuations reflected no alteration in the general attitude of the market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Cotton—The market was quiet at 10 25c; net receipts 100 bales; gross receipts 8,876 bales; stock 85,199 bales.

Have You THESE SYMPTOMS?

There's Danger Ahead.

If you have sharpe pains across the small of the back, if there is any irregularity in the urine, if it is scanty or profuse, or difficult to retain, then your kidneys are out of order and should be given prompt attention. It has been given the severest tests for thirty years, and has never failed to relieve the worst case and stay the fatal progress of the disease. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Deputies Monaghan and Pate returned to Fayetteville on Monday from the western part of Cumberland county with four negro men in custody charged with the murder of John Maynor, the negro who was shot from ambush at a church festival last week.

— Charlotte News: We hope that no one will raise the issue whether Bryan would have run better than Parker or whether Parker's defeat was due to the country's fear of Bryanism. That is a wholly unprofitable discussion. We have gotten together. Let us keep together.

— The Forsyth county commissioners are going to ask the next legislature to give the county commissioners authority to establish a work house on the county farm, for the better handling of youthful criminals and women.

— State Entomologist Franklin Sherman, at Raleigh, on Monday received six hundred dead cotton boll weevils from Texas. He is arranging these to send to cotton growers all over the State, putting one insect in a little bottle held against the side of it with cotton, so it can readily be seen. The purpose is to enable the farmers to readily identify the dreaded weevil should the latter enter the State. Almost every day various insects which farmers fear are weevils are sent to the entomologist.

— A dispatch from Fayetteville on Monday says: C. D. Grimsley, who was arrested in this city some time ago charged with stealing merchandise from freight trains on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, of which he was conductor and whose case was to have been tried at Robeson Superior Court Saturday, failed to answer and forfeited his $200 bond. Report says he skipped. He had engaged two lawyers from here in addition to some of the members of the Lumberton bar to defend him.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Nothing has been heard since the election from Dr. Mott, R. Z. Linney, S. E. Marshall and the other big Republicans who were going to defeat Blackburn. A private letter from Alexander county says: "Mr. Linney did not vote for Mr. Blackburn, but urged all to vote for Newland. He said if this district elected Blackburn and he was seated then he (Linney) would never vote a Republican ticket again."

— Raleigh Post, Nov. 15: Bennie James, a rather genteel looking young white man, was arrested at the union depot this morning on the arrival of the 1:20 northbound Seaboard train by Policeman T. B. Alderson on the charge of breaking into the trunk of his room-mate, E. E. Purvis, of Tarboro, and stealing $310, besides other articles of value. James was lodged in the city prison for safe keeping until the officers can carry him to Tarboro to answer for the crime. The robbery was committed last Thursday night and the case was put in the hands of Mr. N. W. Haynes, a clever young detective of Tarboro, who traced James to Raleigh Friday night.

— Salisbury Sun: "Sis" Bates, the 12 year old negro girl charged with the murder of Blanche Christian, her companion, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Julian near Livingstone College after a vigilant search for the child murderess. The girl proved to be one of the most elusive individuals Sheriff Julian has hunted during his term of four years. A natural cunning seems to accompany the criminal instinct that has preponderated in the life of this child and by circuitous routes she completely eluded the officers for 24 hours. When he did get her Saturday afternoon she was found in the store of C. Gooding, near Livingstone College, where she had previously been during the day. To the sheriff the girl accounted for her possession of her dead companion's clothes by saying that the latter's dress was filled with cockle burrs and that she had removed it to take the burrs off when the Christian girl drowned. But little credence is given the child's story and it is held that she maliciously pushed the blind child into the creek.

— Grant Gwynn and Jim York, two negroes employed at the power house of the Greensboro Electric Company, met death under most peculiar circumstances Saturday night. Mr. R. E. Pentecost, the night engineer, observed that the steam began going down and he went into the boiler room to investigate a few minutes after 11 o'clock, when he was horrified to find the dead bodies of Gwynn and York, one of them lying across a wheelbarrow in front of one of the boilers and the other on the ground floor. Their bodies were burned badly and their clothing was on fire. The officers of the company and the county coroner were summoned, but they were unable to advance a theory as to the cause of the accident, which is shrouded in mystery. The coroner decided that the men came to their death by an electric shock and no inquest was held. About the same hour these men were killed two other negroes came in contact with a sagging arc light wire on King street, half a mile distant, and were badly shocked. At about the same time Mr. George Phoenix, residing on Lyndon street, also received a severe shock in turning out the incandescent light in the bath room of his home. His hand was painfully burned and he was rendered unconscious for some time.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

— Charlotte Observer: It is not worth while to indulge regrets, but everybody will ask: How did it happen? Prosperity. The farmer, merchant, manufacturer, laborer, wage-earner—all are satisfied and feared a change. Judge Parker did not attract, did not enthuse the voters. They like an aggressive man—a man of action. Such is the President. * * * It is over now. We feel uneasy for the South. It is in the hands of an adverse President and of a Congress which, by a great majority, is in sympathy with him. They may reduce our representation—they may do with us anything they will.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 16.

A CONVERT REPUIATES ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The Marquiese Des Monstiers Merinville, Formerly Miss M. G. Caldwell, Who Founded Washington University.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Associated Press has received the following. Before giving it publication, its authenticity has been fully verified by cablegram from Rome:

"Rome, October 30, 1904.—Editor of the Associated Press—You have my full permission to print the enclosed, and give it as wide a publication as possible.

"Yours truly,

"MARQUIESE DES MONSTIERS."

"Dear Editor—It may interest some of your readers to know that the Marquiese des Monstiers Merinville, formerly Miss M. G. Caldwell, who it will be remembered founded the Roman Catholic University at Washington some years ago, has entirely repudiated her former creed. In an interview with me the other day she said:

'Yes, it is true that I have left the Roman Catholic church. Since I have been living in Europe my eyes have been opened to what that church really is, and to its anything but sanctity. But the trouble goes much further back than this. Being naturally religious my imagination was early caught by the idea of doing something to lift the church from the lowly position which it occupied in America, so I thought of a university or higher school where its clergy could be educated, and, if possible, refined. Of course in this I was greatly influenced by Bishop Spalding of Peoria, who represented it to me as one of the greatest works of the day. When I was 21 I turned over to them one-third of my fortune for that purpose. But for years I have been trying to rid myself of the subtle yet overwhelming influence of a church which pretends not only to the privilege of being 'the only true church,' but of being alone able to open the gates of heaven to a sorrowful, sinful world. At last my honest Protestant blood has asserted itself, and I now forever repudiate and cast off 'The Yoke of Rome.' So saying the Marquise politely dismissed me.

"It will be remembered that the Marquise des Monstiers Merinville and her sister, the Baroness von Zedwitz, are the daughters of the late William S. Caldwell and his wife, who was a Breckenridge, of Kentucky. Shortly before his death Mr. Caldwell became a convert to Roman Catholicism, and left his children to the care of Irish Roman Catholics in New York whom his wife had met in church circles. The younger sister married some fifteen years ago a German nobleman, a Lutheran, and has since then also left the Roman Catholic communion. The elder has been in very bad health for some years, from having to occupy a position before the world as a prominent Roman Catholic which was not a real one, and into which her extreme generosity led her, as a young and inexperienced girl. Now at last her own mind has asserted itself and she returns to the creed of her ancestors."

Mary Gwendolyn Caldwell is the daughter of William Shakespeare Caldwell, who after being a theatrical manager in England settled in Richmond, Va., and eventually made a large fortune in building gas houses in Chicago, St. Louis, Mobile and other cities. He married Miss Breckenridge, a famous Kentucky beauty. Miss Caldwell and her sister, Lina, spent the summers at Newport, where they had a magnificent house, and usually passed part of the winter when they were not abroad in New York. On the death of her father, Miss Caldwell inherited $3,000,000, and October 19th, 1896, she was married to the Marquis des Monstiers Merinville, a French nobleman, by Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, the guardian and administrator of the estate of Miss Caldwell.

At the time of her marriage Miss Caldwell was a very handsome woman, about 35 years of age and devotion to the church by giving $300,000 to found the Divinity College of the Roman Catholic University in Washington. Some seven years previous to her marriage Miss Caldwell was engaged to Prince Mural, grandson of the King of Naples. The engagement was broken because the Prince insisted that half of Miss Caldwell's fortune should be settled upon him.

The Divinity College of the Roman Catholic University in Washington is known as the Mary Gwendolyn Caldwell Hall of Divinity.

P. O. D. CLERK DISMISSED.

He Made Statements That Were Considered Offensive by the P. M. G.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—John S. Brownlow, of Tennessee, a clerk in the Postoffice Department, who acted as disbursing officer of the department at the St. Louis Exposition, was dismissed from the service to-day by order of the President. Brownlow was charged with impertinence and insubordination, and as he declined to withdraw his offensive language his dismissal followed.

Brownlow's insubordination consisted in refusing to supply an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements asked for by Postmaster General Payne, accompanying his refusal with statements to the postmaster general which were considered offensive. He evidently felt that the demand of Mr. Payne was a reflection upon his honor. Brownlow was given an opportunity to withdraw the statements considered offensive, but he refused to do so, and his dismissal followed.

STOCKYARDS FIRE.

Raged for Several Hours in Jersey City. Loss Estimated at About $150,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A considerable quantity of dressed meats in cold storage, was incinerated, much valuable property was destroyed and many blocks along the water front were threatened by a fire which raged for several hours in the United Stockyards in Jersey City early to-day. The fire started in the cold storage room of the plant and is thought to have started by an explosion of ammonia.

W. A. Sherman, manager of the stockyards, said that about one thousand dressed hogs and sheep were consumed by the flames and that about two hundred live hogs and two hundred live sheep perished. Mr. Sherman said that the loss might go to $150,000 and possibly a little over that. It is believed that no human lives were lost.

JAPANESE ADVANCE DAILY EXPECTED.

BOMBARDMENT BY RUSSIANS.

Situation at Port Arthur—Russian Commander Orders Troops to Fight to the Last—Garrison Demoralized—Cannot Hold Out.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

CHANSIBN, OUTOUN, (Gen Kuropatkin's Headquarters,) Nov. 15.—A Japanese advance is daily expected. Large masses of troops are moving eastward and the Russians are expecting them to strike at their left flank.

An attack upon the fortified village of Endowuniulu, not far from Sinchinpu (two miles west of the Shakhe railroad station), and fronting the right flank of the Seventeenth corps, was carried out brilliantly during the night of November 10th by the Second brigade of the 35th infantry division. The village had been captured the same morning by the Japanese. Subsequently the Russians abandoned the place.

Hostile Warships.

CEE FOO, Nov. 15, 7:15 A. M.—A Russian torpedo boat has just entered the harbor. She has not been communicated with yet, owing to the roughness of the sea. It is reported that a Japanese torpedo boat destroyer has been seen outside, watching the movements of the Russian vessel.

Russian Bombardment.

MUKDEN, via Tien Tsin, Nov. 15.—An unbroken cannonade of siege guns, throwing fifty to sixty shells hourly against the Japanese position in the region of the Shakhe station, begun early this morning and ended only at nightfall, when more than half a thousand big contact shells had been thrown into the Japanese army's strongest position on the plain for the purpose of demoralizing the work of fortification concentrated at that point for the past four weeks.

To-day's bombardment was the most serious attempt yet made by the Russians' large guns, and it was made on account of the apparent determination of the Japanese to make Shakhe station an impregnable defence of the railway station behind.

Little Fighting.

MUKDEN, Nov. 15.—There was very little fighting in this vicinity on November 13th and 14th. The weather is growing colder day by day, and flurries of snow are frequent.

In Bad Straits.

HEADQUARTERS OF THIRD JAPANESE ARMY, BEFORE PORT ARTHUR, via Fusan, Nov. 15, (delayed in transmission).—Spies and Russians who have surrendered report that rations in the fortress have been reduced. The wounded found by the Japanese are emaciated.

Russian artillery shells are made partly of wood and do not explode. This shows that the Russians are short of material for making heavy ammunition.

The capture of the eastern fortified ridge will mean the surrender of the fortress in a couple of weeks unless the garrison there retires to the isolated forts. This seems improbable, however, and the cold weather and lack of food and ammunition renders resistance unlikely.

Conditions at Port Arthur.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE THIRD JAPANESE ARMY BEFORE PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 15, via Fusan.—It is reported that a wound received by General Stoessel has necessitated his confinement in a hospital, that he refused to relinquish the command of the garrison, and that he has issued orders to the troops to die at their posts rather than surrender.

It is said that the spirit of the Russian troops has been dampened by continuous work, the lack of supplies and the hopelessness of their ability to make any successful defence of the fortress. It is said further that many of the Russian soldiers are ready to surrender, but that they are kept at their posts by officers, who threaten them with revolvers, and that several soldiers who were suspected of a desire to desert have been shot as a warning to others. The Japanese now believe that the garrison has almost reached the limit of human endurance.

THE COTTON BOLL WEEVIL.

Steadily Advancing North and East—Immediate Action Urged in Every Cotton Growing State in Union.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SHREVEPORT, LA., Nov. 15.—The executive committee of the national cotton boll weevil convention, which assembles in this city December 12th to 15th inclusive, to-day issued an address to the cotton growers of the South. The committee states that the flight of the weevil during the Summer of 1904 has been fully fifty miles north and east into territory heretofore uninfested and indicates a habit that is beyond the power of States to control. The committee says:

"These efforts have been of untold value to the territory involved, but nevertheless emphasize in no uncertain tones the danger threatening the cotton crop of this country unless immediate, definite and corporative action is taken by every cotton growing State and every cotton interest to utilize the result of past investigations to further perfect remedial endeavor. The division of opinion and interest in a campaign against the weevil will bring disaster and defeat."

ATLANTIC COAST LINE.

Dividend of 25 Per Cent. on Common Stock Declared—Capital Stock Increased.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 15.—The stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line met here to-day. The action of the directors in purchasing the Jacksonville and Southwestern was aproved. A dividend of 25 per cent. on the common stock was declared, 20 per cent. in cash and 5 per cent. on certificate of indebtedness—payable in January. The old officers were elected by the directors. The capital stock was increased to fifty millions.

STORM DAMAGE ALONG THE COAST.

A Fishing Lodge Washed Away by a Tidal Wave and Two Men Were Drowned.

NORTH OF CAPE HATTERAS.

Weather Bureau's Seacoast Telegraph Wires Restored as Far South as Manteo, N. C.—Schooner Miles Murray Lost Sails in Gale.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 15.—Communication over the United States Weather Bureau's seacoast telegraph wires was restored to-day as far south as Manteo, on Roanoke Island, N. C. At Kinnakeet, N. C., a fishing lodge on the beach was washed into Pamlico sound by a tidal wave and two men were drowned. The names of the men were not given in the brief telegram which came over a badly working wire. Kinnakeet is situated five and three quarter miles north of Cape Hatteras on a small strip of land separating the Atlantic ocean and Pamlico sound.

No news had been received from the schooner Myra W. Spear, which stranded on the Hatteras coast last week, and which it is supposed must have gone to pieces in the storm of Sunday.

The four-masted schooner Miles M. Murray, Captain Pickett, bound from Bangor, Maine, to Brunswick, Ga.; came into Hampton Roads this morning with nearly all of her sails blown away and with many of her spars missing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—While considerable progress had been made in repairing the damage wrought by Sunday night's gale, conditions today had by no means become normal. After more than 36 hours of steady work the repair crews sent out by the telegraph and telephone companies had succeeded in patching up the main lines, but the wires in many cases were worked under most discouraging conditions and were unable to handle the great mass of matter that had accumulated. Good connections had been established between New York, Philadelphia and Boston but beyond those points emergency circuits were still in use. Wall street was in much better condition than yesterday. Direct communication between the cotton exchanges of New York and New Orleans which was entirely cut off yesterday, had been established by the Western Union, and there were two wires between New York and the cattle and grain markets in Chicago.

In Eastern Maine where more than 1,300 telegraph and telephone poles were blown down during the storm, the wires were still out of service.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Captain Pratt, of the steamer Berkshire, which arrived here to-day from Savannah, reports that he fell in with the Diamond Shoals Lightship Monday afternoon four miles northeast by half east of the lightship's station. The lightship signalled that the vessel was dragged from the station by Sunday's gale. All on board were well and wished to be reported.

A SHORT-LIVED REVOLUTION.

Outbreak in Brazil Crushed and Order Restored—Leaders of the Movement Fled—Many Persons Killed.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 15.—The students of the military school revolted yesterday evening and deposed the commandant, General Costallent. This was followed by secret meetings held at the Military Club, at which Generals Olympio Silveira and Travassos were present. General Travassos was appointed to succeed General Costallent.

The whole school at about 8 P. M., under the command of General Travassos, marched upon the town but were met by a detachment of soldiers and military police. A serious encounter followed during which General Travassos was wounded and his horse shot under him. His adjutant was killed. The cadets then fell back and occupied the hills in the neighborhood of the school building. At 2 A. M. the soldiers and police, supported by the war vessels, attacked the cadets' position and at 5 A. M. the cadets being without a leader surrendered. They were all placed in prison.

Order Restored.

RIO JANEIRO, November 15—The revolutionary movement has been crushed and order is completely restored. Senator Lauro Sodec and Deputy Barboza Lima, leaders of the movement, have fled. Other leaders have been arrested. Many persons have been killed or wounded.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

Reported from Several Places in the State of Jalisco, Mexico.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 15.—Earthquake shocks are reported from several points in the State of Jalisco. At the town of Autlan the walls of several buildings were cracked. No damage, however, was done.

The volcano Colima is inactive and seismic disturbances are feared, as it has been noticed that such disturbances are much more frequent and severe during the volcano's inactivity.

WARM WIRELETS

Subscriptions to the Japanese loan were closed yesterday in London. It is stated that the bids for the $30,000,000 offered in London aggregate $300,000,000.

The wholesale and retail clothing manufactory of Schiff Sons, Baltimore, was damaged $50,000 by fire of unknown origin last night. Partly covered by insurance.

The Fall River printcloth mills were re opened again yesterday to give striking operatives an opportunity to return, but few of the corporations had better luck than on Monday.

E. L. Moore, of Valdosta, Ga., a prominent saw mill man of that section, has been placed in bankruptcy upon the petition of several Savannah creditors. The liabilities are about $150,000. The assets are not stated, but are large.

William Wright, colored, who shot Policeman J. J. Hall, at Danville, Va., August 29th of this year while the officer was trying to arrest him, was captured at Roanoke, Va., by the local police. There was a reward of $1,350 for Wright's arrest.

Miss Dora Campbell, former postmaster at Maysville, Ga., pleaded guilty of embezzlement of funds in the Federal court, Athens, Ga. Her sentence was suspended until the next term of court in April. The sum short was about $700.

A VISITOR FROM JAPAN.

Prince Fushimi, a Near Relative of the Emperor, Called at the White House to Pay His Respects to President.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Prince Sadamura Fushimi, a near relative of the Emperor of Japan, who has arrived as a guest of the nation, to-day called at the White House to pay his respects to the President and to convey to him the sincere good wishes and friendship of the Mikado, and his hope for the President's continued good health and happiness.

Prince Fushimi was attired in the uniform of a lieutenant general of the Japanese army. The Prince and his suite were ushered into the Blue room, where in a few minutes President Roosevelt, accompanied by Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis and Secretary William Loeb, Jr., greeted them. The greeting between the President and Prince Fushimi was cordial. Their conversation was continued through an interpreter and related principally to Japanese history and literature, with incidental reference to the pending Russo-Japanese war, in which Prince Fushimi has played a conspicuous part.

The President returned the Prince's call in the afternoon and in the evening entertained the Prince and the diplomatic corps at the White House.

SHOOTING AT HOPE MILLS.

John Musselwhite, Baseball Pitcher, Carried to Hospital in Fayetteville.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following of interest:

"Mr. John Musselwhite, the well known baseball pitcher, of Hope Mills, was brought to this city and placed in the Highsmith hospital this morning suffering with a number of painful gunshot wounds.

"About dark two young white men, Messrs. J. W. Hodge and John Musselwhite, who are brothers-in-law, left Mr. Britt's livery stable in Hodge's buggy, under the influence of liquor, and with a jug of spirits. They went in the direction of Lumber Bridge, and when two miles from Hope Mills, Hodge, who was about crazed with whiskey by this time, got in a dispute with his companion, who insisted on entering a certain house, and to keep him from entering the house, so Hodge says, he shot him in the legs, using a shot-gun, which was loaded with No. 6 bird shot.

After the shooting Hodge returned to Hope Mills with Musselwhite and carried him to the drug store, where his wounds were dressed. Both legs below the knees are badly shot up, but it is not thought the wounds are serious.
